

LUIS TORRES RUBIO, S.L. dedicated to machining Turning and milling CNC, seeks to provide quality services to its customers. To do this, it is based on this policy of quality achieved through the following lines:

Unifying criteria work towards an efficient organization, and obtain products that meet the needs of our customers.

Identify which comply at all times with the requirements specified by us, as well as the legal requirements and any other requirements that apply to us.

Sensitized to the need for sustainable and always committed to preventing pollution products.

Trying to achieve the objectives within the Organization Workers involved with optimal performance towards improved quality and comfort in all activities to develop

Optimization of resource consumption, as well as continuous process improvement focused on customer satisfaction, compliance with legislation and pollution prevention.

Relationship as beneficial as possible to enable suppliers provide services with the required quality and taking into account the prevention of pollution and compliance with environmental regulations and other requirements that the organization subscribes.

Reaffirm the commitment to carry out this policy, establishing for it a Quality Management System according to the UNE-EN-ISO 9001.

Environment and Sustainability will be the framework for the development of objectives and goals consistent with it and measurable, which are set out in the relevant functions and levels LUIS TORRES RUBIO, S.L.

Services that are delivered to their customers are satisfied with the specified requirements, both in terms of quality and finishes are concerned.

Fdo. Management